

I wish to make it known that I do not wish Consumer Bankers Association (CBA) to succeed in weakening the Indiana Telephone Privacy law in any way, means, manner, or form. Since this law was passed into being I have enjoyed peace and quiet in my home for the first time in years that was not disturbed by unwanted telephone calls. Please do not take away from me my right to peace and quiet in my own home at the hands of telephone sales people. If I desire to conduct business with these people I will go to them. I do not need any bank to force their way into my home via unwanted phone calls and harass my family with unwanted sales attempts. If you allow them to succeed in this invasion of my privacy they will undoubtedly begin using this invasion of my privacy for the benefit of others hiding behind the weakening of this law.
